"As I work away it was good to have updates so I knew what was happening. We have been pleased and impressed by the works carried out. The builders were very good about cleaning up each day and respected our property at all times. We were pleased that a number of small 'extra' things requested had been carried out with no fuss. The builders were well informed and were happy to explain things. We felt that the level of customer service by all was good. All emails were answered within a day and calls were returned quickly and in a friendly manner. We were happy with your professional service, quality of work and level of expertise. We would recommend you to others"
